

Inspiring the first unified generation.

Special
Olympics
Virginia

Global Messenger

Catlyn Callahan

Years Involved with Special Olympics: 2 years

Hometown: Mechanicsville

Sports: Champions Together Track Team, Lee Davis HS

Educational History: Student at Lee Davis HS

Career Goals: "I would like to have a career with Special Olympics one day."

People Admired: Parents, Mrs. Dail, Lauren, My Brother, Kitty Hale (grandmother)

Why is it important to build a more unified generation?

"So the young generation or unified partner learn to play along side students with and without disabilities and they learn communication skills and make friends that last a lifetime."

"The will to win, the desire to succeed, the urge to reach your full potential. These are the keys that will unlock the door to personal excellence."

*Catlyn Callahan
Global Messenger*

Lauren Schrecengost, Mentor

Global Messengers are Special Olympics Virginia athletes who help spread the message and vision of the movement as well as the benefits gained by participation in Special Olympics. Global Messengers deliver a powerful message of respect, inclusion, unity and attitudinal change. For more information regarding the Special Olympics Virginia Global Messenger program please contact David Pawlowski at 804-726-3034 or dpawlowski@specialolympicsva.org.