

Inspiring the first unified generation.

Special
Olympics
Virginia

Global Messenger

Troy Evans

Years Involved with Special Olympics: 13

Hometown: Elkton

Sports: Bowling, Basketball, Softball, and Volleyball

Educational History:

John Handley High School Graduate, Class of 2008

Employment History:

Volunteers assisting elderly residents in his apartment community

Volunteers a Special Olympics fundraising activities

Career goal: "I want to be the best person that I can be and help anyone who needs help."

People Admired: Dad, Eric Evans; Tammy Torkelson, Director Area 4 ; Daniel Leake, Special Olympics Virginia Reginal Director

Why is it important to build a more unified generation?

"It is important to involve anyone that wants to participate in our organization. I enjoy having unified player on our teams."

"We don't stop playing because we grow old; we grow old because we stop playing". -George Bernard Shaw

*Troy Evans
Global Messenger*

*Eric Evans
Mentor*

Global Messengers are Special Olympics Virginia athletes who help spread the message and vision of the movement as well as the benefits gained by participation in Special Olympics. Global Messengers deliver a powerful message of respect, inclusion, unity and attitudinal change. For more information regarding the Special Olympics Virginia Global Messenger program please contact David Pawlowski at 804-726-3034 or dpawlowski@specialolympicsva.org.